FRENCH STAND WITH GERMANY SUSPICIONED

German Passive Resistance Over But Future Feared

(By the Associated Press)
LONDON, Sept. 29.—The feeling in Berlin political circles generally, as outlined in a Reuter dispatch from the German capital, is no wise optimistic concerning the prospect of a successful agreement with France on reparations. A strong suspicion prevails, according to the despatch that the French are going to prove more uncompromising and will make still further impossible demands.

Meanwhile the whole country is described as perfectly tranquil including Bavaria and its capital, Munich, where Dr. Von Kahr, is showing his zeal as dictator by having the building of the Munich Post searched for arms, with the assistance of armored cars in case of resistance. Forty rifles and two machine guns, apparently intended for use in case of attack by Hitler's bands were seized.

Strangely Hitler himself watched the raid from an automobile and this aroused the suspicion that he was responsible for it. Complete disregard of the "state of emergency" was shown in Berlin last night by a half dozen masked men, who, armed with revolvers entered the office of a sausage factory and made off with 100,000,000 marks.

The political situation in Saxony is said by Saxon industrialists to be very serious. They have asked Chancellor Stresemann by telegraph to oppose any efforts to rescind the state of emergency.

WILL TRY MAN WHO POSED AS A WOMAN

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 29.—When Frederick Thompson who posed as a woman for 20 years and who is accused of being the "Smiling Blue Eyed Girl" who shot and killed Richard Tesmer, insurance agent during a holdup, goes on trial for murder next Monday, he will not appear in full feminine garb which he much prefers, Frank McDonnell his attorney said today.

McDonnell said he first intended to present his client in the garments that Thompson prefers but feared the effect on the jury. So McDonnell said Thompson will wear brown silk pajamas, a silk sweater coat, black satin slippers and will have his hair marcelled.

Today an X-ray was taken of Thompson's spine at his attorney's request, but the purpose of this was not revealed although assistant state's attorneys raised strenuous objections on general grounds. The police later tonight made public an alleged confession by Peggy Burke, a 21 year old girl, who took part in from 30 to 50 robberies, after she had used cosmetics to change her appearance from a red haired, red checked girl to an olive skinned, black haired, Spanish senorita type.

The police were especially interested in her testimony as they said she was reticent concerning her actions at the time of the celebrated Tesmer murder.

CHICAGO WILL HAVE NEW MASONIC TEMPLE

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—The old Iroquois theater where hundreds were burned to death in the "Iroquois theater fire" of 1903 and which was later rebuilt and rechristened the Colonial, is to make way for a Masonic Temple rising 300 feet above the sidewalk and costing $5,000,000 it was announced today when leases were signed whereby the Masonic corporation takes over the theater and adjoining property, giving a 140 foot frontage on Randolph street.

A theater seating more than 3,000 people will be a feature of the building which will accommodate more than 100 lodges, all the intention of the Jacksonville party to make the trip by motor provided the weather will permit.

After the convention the Jacksonville contingent will visit in Decatur for the balance of the week.

DOG GUARDS BABY
Denville, Ill.—Asleep in a pig pen, guarded by his fox terrier dog, Homer Russell, two years old, was found by his father, Clyde Russell a half mile from the city. The boy, missing for eight hours had caused the police to search the country for him.

Mrs. Mattie Lache was shopping in the city from Winchester Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Harris was a Concord shopper on the square Saturday.

MEETING POSTPONED
The Young Peoples Union which has been meeting every fifth Sunday in the past will not meet today which is the regular scheduled meeting date. The new students in the city are just beginning to become acquainted, and the officers of the union feel that more time should elapse before their next meeting.

GOVERNOR OF OKLAHOMA CLAIMS POWER TO STOP ELECTION

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA, CITY, Ok., Sept. 29.—The special state election called for October 2 at which it is possible an initiative bill permitting the state legislature to convene and investigate state officials may be voted upon, will be illegal, Governor J. C. Walton declared here tonight.

The governor would not say whether he intended to prevent the election and declined to discuss his position in the court fight of his council to keep the initiative proposal off the ballot.

"I have the power to revoke the special election," was the governor's only assertion.

The state supreme court ruled Thursday that the election would be legal.

Governor Walton said he intended to substitute his claim, which is the failure of the state election board to follow the law compelling publication of election issues five days prior to the date for the election.

Legal Action Taken.
Legal proceedings instituted by Campbell Russell to force on the ballot at a special state election October 2 a initiative measure authorizing the state legislature to convene by a majority call to investigate the official acts of Governor J. C. Walton were withdrawn tonight in district court here by agreement of counsel.

At the same time attorneys for the executive also withdrew their application which resulted today.

FAILS TO LOCATE
BABY GIVEN AWAY

(By the Associated Press)
DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 29.—While Mrs. Rachael Flegels, sister of Alphonse Vlemminck, pleaded with her brother to "tell the truth" about what he did with the infant son of William Greatrex given Vlemminck by mistake at the Evangelical Deaconess hospital, the man continued to reiterate his original story that he had given the baby to a "stranger from Pennsylvania."

Vlemminck was given the baby at the hospital early this week when he called for the baby born to his daughter, Eva Vlemminck. Mrs. Flegels came here from Belgium on August 26, she told police to adopt the baby about to be born to Vlemminck's daughter to save her brother from "shame and disgrace."

Mrs. Flegels Tale.
"A week before the baby came," Mrs. Flegels said in her statement, "he told me I need not worry about having to take the baby back to Belgium as he had found a nice couple without children who would adopt it."

The sister said on the night of Sept. 24, her brother went to the hospital saying he would bring the baby home. The daughter left shortly after, asserting that she was going out to make some purchases. About 10 o'clock according to Mrs. Flegels, her brother returned with a bundle containing some unsold baby clothes, "and inquired anxiously where Yvonne (Eva) was. He then left the house and an hour and a half later returned with his daughter."

"He seemed excited," the sister told police.

NEW BOARD OF CONTROL NOW IS PROPOSED

Would be Composed to Represent Entire Country

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—A federal reserve board composed of a manufacturer, a wholesaler dealer, a retailer, a farmer and a representative of organized labor was advocated tonight by Senator Magnus Johnson, of Minnesota, as a "medium whereby a government of all the people might temper the power and profit-seeking of its powerful class of the welfare of all classes of the country."

The farmer-senator spoke before the progressive labor forum in Carnegie Hall.

He characterized the federal reserve board as black with the crime of deflation perpetrated against 98 per cent of the people on behalf of the financial two per cent.

Numerous Criticisms.
He criticized the agriculture department as being "loaded up with meat packers, cotton speculators, grain dealers and Standard Oil educators," opposed government ownership of the railroads until there was more public interest in watch non-political management, and discussed foreign policies, which he felt were being used by the major political parties to distract attention from bad domestic policies."

Soviet Recognition.
Recognition of the Russian Soviet government as a trade measure was recommended by Senator Johnson, who said he believed peace could be promoted by well conceived treaties, also he doubted the wisdom of engaging in crusades to make the world safe for Democracy.

He insisted, however, that America not be bound to carry on war for another nation.

He said foreign conditions had been blamed falsely as the principal factors in bad business conditions whereas 95 per cent of American business was done in America.

People of Minnesota, he said, were convinced that American strength and prosperity of the working classes, adding that the Farmer-Labor revolt which elected him wanted a restoration of American principles not an overthrow.

BELIEVED JAPANESE FAVORING RUSSIA

(By the Associated Press)
TOKIO, Sept. 29.—Baron Ijima, the new foreign minister, is quoted by the Tokio Hochi as saying the cabinet favors re-opening negotiations with soviet Russia as soon as possible with a view to resuming relations with that country. This also was suggested recently by M. Karahan, new soviet envoy to China during an interview with Kenkichi Yoshizawa, Japanese minister at Peking.

With Baron Goto, a leading member of the cabinet (minister of home affairs) the reported attitude of the cabinet is understandable as it was Goto who brought about the informal conversations between M. Joffe, representing the Moscow government and Toshiko Kawakami, representing the Japanese government.

The refusal recently of the Japanese authorities to permit the Russian rescue supply ship Genie to remain in Yokohama harbor has embarrassed the government somewhat. But it has been pointed out that that was merely a police action and it is believed the incident may be bridged without difficulty.

ADAMS COUNTY BOARD GETS SEVERE REBUKE

QUINCY, Ill.—The Adams county board of supervisors was rebuked for failing to appropriate funds to provide for treating cattle for tuberculosis, by P. A. Jounger on the day of his retirement as farm bureau adviser here to take a special course at the University of Illinois.

"If the recent action of our board of supervisors is an indication of the people's wishes, Adams county desires to be last in the state to clean up tuberculosis in its herds," declared Mr. Jounger. "Adams county is a hog raising county and if once on the accredited list of the Area plan, which means that federal and state aid would be forthcoming, the bonus of 10 cents per hundred that we will receive for our hogs from the five large packers would amount to nearly $30,000 annually."

The increasing losses sustained by packers because inspectors at the stock yards find tuberculosis have caused the packers to make attractive offers to aid the government in stamping out this disease among cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCormick were Saturday callers in Jacksonville from Woodson.

DEATH LIST IN TRAIN PLUNGE STILL UNKNOWN

Cars Buried in Sand and Rescue Work Delayed

(By the Associated Press)
CASPER, Wyo., Sept. 29.—Altho the forty-eight hours have passed since Burlington passenger train No. 30 plunged thru a weakened bridge over Cole Creek east of Casper, Thursday night carrying many of the passengers and crew to death in the swollen stream, the problem of determining the exact number of fatalities was no nearer solution tonight than it was a few hours after the wreck.

Heaps of sand swept down by a second unexpected rise in the stream last night was today piled over and around the cars which had crashed thru the bridge and altho a crew of more than fifty men toiled all day in the sandy creek bed only three bodies were brought out. They were identified as E. J. Klove, brakeman of Casper; G. W. Norse, of Gunnison, Colo., and Albert Hill, negro of Dodge City, Kansas.

Cars in Creek.
One Pullman car, one chair car, a combination car and a smoker followed the locomotive into Cole Creek Thursday night. Only the top of the Pullman car is visible where the waters have receded so deeply is the car imbedded in the sand.

The smoking car lies underneath one end of the day coach which in turn is partly clogged with sand and debris.

Altho the relief crews were still working early tonight J. C. Crissinger, division superintendent of the Burlington, made the statement that on account of the difficulties encountered by the workers it was not probable that more bodies would be found tonight.

SUPERVISE FOREIGN EXCHANGE DEALERS

New Law Places Them Under Direction of State Auditor's Office—Chicago Paper Shows Benefit of the Plan.

The Chicago Journal of Commerce in a recent issue made editorial comment upon the law enacted by the last general assembly which licenses dealers in foreign exchange and places them under the supervision of the state auditor's office.

This law was passed largely thru the efforts of Andrew Russell, auditor of public accounts, and Edward J. Koudage, attorney general, and is already bearing good fruit. A number of responsible foreign exchange dealers in Chicago and other parts of the state are taking advantage of it by qualifying as the law contemplated.

However, there is a disposition on the part of some foreign exchange dealers to fight the law and it is reported on good authority that they have employed a former Republican state official and prominent Chicago attorney to test the legality of this law.

The enactment of this law was intended especially to protect the foreign immigrant and others from dishonest and unscrupulous dealers in foreign exchange and is in no way intended to reflect on any honorable person or persons, (who it can be truly said compose the large majority) engaged in this business.

A law almost similar to this went into effect January 1, 1921, being a section of what is known as the “Private Bank Bill,” but on account of a legal technicality it was declared unconstitutional, the attorney in the case being the same as the one referred to above.

The paragraphs from the Chicago Journal of Commerce which give further explanation of the operation of the law are printed herewith:

Licensing Foreign Exchange Agent.

“The job of passing legislation to protect and regulate the banking business in Illinois is practically done. Almost the last piece of this necessary legislation goes into effect October 1.

“It is an act requiring any person, firm or corporation, other than a state or national bank, that wishes to engage in the business of transmitting money to foreign countries or buying or selling foreign money, or receiving money on deposit to be transmitted to foreign countries, to obtain an annual license from the state auditor of public accounts, who will have supervision over this business.

“Private banks are barred by Illinois law, but heretofore the law has been evaded by the use of the title, ‘foreign exchange and steamship agent,’ instead of the word ‘bank.’ An extraordinary heavy business is done by these agents among foreigners who send money to relatives in Europe. Frequently the senders are grossly swindled on the exchange rate. The new law requires the agent to deposit a bond of $25,000 with the state auditor. Thus a victim who has proof of fraud will have some assurance of an ability to recover damages.

“The bond requirement will necessarily limit the number of foreign exchange agents at once. This result will be beneficial, for in every district of the state there are clean, healthy banks which offer an honest service in transmitting foreign exchange.

“The task of regulating the exchange agents will be another heavy burden for the state auditor's office. When private banks were compelled to submit to state regulation on a certain day, the personnel of the auditor's office proved too small to meet the requirements. This shortage is the cause of the occasional bank failures which still mar the state's record. Bankers and business men generally should demand that the state auditor be given an adequate force of subordinates. The laws are ample. Let them be enforced.”

LIBRARIANS MEET IN STATE CONFERENCE

Practical Themes Discussed at Convention Held in Peoria—Dr. Carl Black Made One of the Addresses

Misses Alice Williams and Elizabeth Donlon returned Friday evening after attending the convention of the Illinois State Librarian association, held in Peoria on Sept. 26th, 27th and 28th. They report a very pleasant group of meetings and some excellent programs.

Thursday morning Miss Jessie VanCleve, who is a member of the staff of the American Library association book list, gave a very instructive talk on the “Selection of Books for Children;” she also gave another talk equally as interesting and instructive Thursday afternoon, on “The Story-Hour Book.” This talk she made quite entertaining by the use of illustrations.

Miss Sarah C. N. Bogle, assistant secretary to the American Library association, spoke Thursday afternoon on “The Fascination of the New Library Movement in France.” Miss Bogle introduced a number of new ideas in her talk and related the details of a movement, which is as yet quite young and not so well known.

Another very interesting and valuable number on the program for Thursday afternoon was an address given by Dr. Carl E. Black, a member of the trustee's section of the association, in which he discussed the controlling considerations in appointing a librarian. Dr. Black was elected as chairman of the trustee's section of the association at this convention.

Thursday evening the number of greatest interest on the program was a talk by Miss Mary K. Reely, superintendent of the A. L. A. Miss Reely, in her address, “As Interesting as Fiction,” told of the different types of minds spoken of in Robinson's “Mind in the Making.”

Friday morning the topics of particular interest were two talks on “The Assistant's Opportunities,” given by Miss Florence D. Love of Decatur, who told how the assistant might serve her library, and by Miss Effie Stillfield, of Peoria, who spoke of the assistant's service to the public; how she might become a factor in the life of the community and be of service in such a way as to please the public and give them the most that is to be received from the library.

Miss Reely's book reviews, which were given on Friday morning, were also very well worthy of mention.

CHAUNCEY OLCOTT HERE OCT 4

To round out a career on the stage second to no American actor in point of popularity and artistic achievement that rollicking singer of ballads and characterizer of lovable Irish bucks Chauncey Olcott has joined the forces of those enterprising theatrical purveyors, The Selwyns.

The new management has in view pretentious future activities for Mr. Olcott and has inaugurated a tour in the popular star's most triumphant offering, “The Heart of Eddy Whack,” appearing at the Grand Theatre, Oct. 4. This pretty Irish romance was written by Rachel Crothers and stands at the head of this prolific playwright's outfit, which includes: “The Three of Us,” and “Mary the Third.”

For the initial Selwyn tour Mr. Olcott has assembled the original supporting company including Willa Frederick, Kalman Maus, Lawrence O'Brien, Helen Gurney, Ella Cook, Blanche Seymour, Nina Sallie, Francis Connors, James Marr, Richard Quilter and others. These players accompanied the popular star when he shattered all records for box office receipts on a sensational transcontinental tour a few seasons ago.

A feature of “Paddy Whack” not to be overlooked is the occurrence in this play of several of the most widely popular ballads of the world-famous singer. Among these are, “A Booby of a Boy,” “Irish Eyes of Love” and “Ladies Buck O' Mine.”

WILLIAM NEWMAN IS SUMMONED BY DEATH

Old Resident of City Dies Saturday Morning—Was Manufacturer and Able Business Man

William Newman, one of the city's most prominent and highly respected older residents, passed away at Passavant hospital at 8:40 o'clock yesterday morning, following six months of illness. However, his condition was not considered grave until a few hours before his death.

Mr. Newman was born in New York City Aug. 22, 1841, the son of Ward and Emma Redigate

WILLIAM NEWMAN

Newman. Early in life he removed with his parents to Minnesota, where his father established a large wholesale business. In 1872 Mr. Newman came to Jacksonville and set up a wholesale notion business, conducting a cigar factory and engaging in the manufacture of work clothing in connection with his main business. In 1889, the company and its several interests were consolidated into the Columbia Manufacturing Co., with Mr. Newman as president. In 1912 he retired from active business.

In 1901 Mr. Newman was elected to the city council from the third ward on the Republican ticket. When the commission form of government was adopted here, he was elected one of the four commissioners, and had charge of streets and public improvements.

As a public official Mr. Newman was conscientious and faithful just as he was in the other affairs of life. He had high ideals of public service and continually sought to reach them. A man with more than the usual vision in business, he had the confidence of all who knew him.

Mr. Newman had an unusual dignity of mien but there was also an unusual geniality of spirit and few of Jacksonville's older residents formed and retained no many friendships. Always generous, kindly and considerate, he traveled along life's highway with the constant endeavor to do good and to be helpful to those about him.

He had long been a supporter of the Baptist church here and many philanthropies had his active support.

Mr. Newman was married on Oct. 4, 1862 to Mary Elizabeth Ellis, who survives him. He also leaves six children: Ward Newman of Fort Dodge, Iowa; Ellis Newman of St. Louis; Miss Mary Louise Newman of Centralia, and Elizabeth, Ella and William Newman, Jr., all at home. He is also survived by four grandchildren: William Ellis and Mary Louise Newman of St. Louis, and Robert Ireland Newman of this city.

Funeral services will be held from the residence, 809 East State street, at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. The remains will be shipped to St. Louis Monday on the 4:25 train, where they will be cremated. The funeral services will be in charge of the Knights Templar of Hospitalier commandery, of which Mr. Newman was long an active member. Friends are requested to omit the sending of flowers.

LOOP CAFETERIA TO CLOSE TONIGHT

Identical Quality of Service Will Be Given Hereafter In Loop Cafe

As previously mentioned, the Loop Cafeteria which has been in operation here for the past two years, by R. T. Birnbaum, is to be removed to Quincy, where an excellent location has been secured in the Newcomb hotel building. This will be the last day of service at the Cafeteria and Mr. Birnbaum is enlarging the facilities of the cafe in order to take care of as many patrons of the cafeteria as possible.

In the past the same kitchen facilities have been utilized for both cafeteria and cafe and cafeteria patrons can be assured that the service in the cafe and the bill of fare offered will be of just the same class that the cafeteria has afforded.

The Loop cafe management will appreciate patronage extended and use every effort to cater to the wishes of the public. Jacksonville people who happen to visit Quincy are invited to visit the cafeteria at the Newcomb.

THE SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE A COMMUNITY ENTERPRISE

"When I first heard people talk about the Social Service League I thought it was just a bunch of fanatics. But now that I have found out what the League is doing for the community I have changed my opinion. That statement was made a few days ago by a professional man prominent in public affairs in Jacksonville. Now, having learned the work of the League, this man is giving his time to help in the coming financial campaign. Perhaps there are others in the community who need to learn that the work of the Social Service League is not just the well-meaning efforts of a 'bunch of fanatics,' but a piece of community service made possible by the generosity of the community as a whole. The Social Service League combines in one organization the work done in many cities by from five to seven agencies. In addition to the Family Welfare work the League staff fulfill the duties of Probation Officer, Overseer of the Poor City Matron and Supervisor of the Yethers' Pension Fund. This work touches daily many phases of community life. The combination of agencies prevents overlapping, and makes possible very great economy of time and money. The work is carried on by a small office staff under the direction of the Board of representative men and women of the city. The personnel of the Board of Directors includes members of the various churches, lodges the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs and other organizations prominent in the social life of Jacksonville. The work touches the community as a whole; the Board members represent the community as a whole. The subscribers who make the work possible also represent the community. In an Illinois city of 20,000 inhabitants the report of last year showed 142 contributors to similar work. In another city of perhaps 50,000 people 437 were listed as sharers in such work. In Jacksonville last year, over 600 contributed to the success of the work of the League. Surely this record may be a matter of pride to the community. Surely it is a record that we must sustain."

Them Acted.

BERLIN—(By the A. P.)—Ernst Toller, the communist playwright who was imprisoned for participation in the uprising of 1919, has had another play produced—the third since he was jailed. He has seen none of them performed.

Toller's communist friends vainly sought his release so that he might witness the production of his "machine wreckers" and his "mass of men," both of which attained considerable success in Germany and have been sold for American presentation. The rightstag was petitioned without success for his temporary release to see the plays last year.

Efforts to win freedom for him so that he might see the initial production in Leipzig of his new play "The German War Cripple" were also fruitless. Critics say the plot has deficiencies which Toller might have corrected had he been able to see the play acted on the stage.

Toller's previous dreams have dealt with the fate of the working class. "The German War Cripple" which is the story of a wounded veteran who is forsaken by his wife, is devoted to a discussion of the fate of the individual under the conditions arising from the war. Anarchists, politicians, socialists and idealists become involved in a general debate in the course of which the plot is obscured. Apparently the playwright's conclusion is that only Man can help Man and that political parties and changes in social organizations are useless.

The German press abounds in friendly comment upon the 100th anniversary of the first appearance of James Fenimore Cooper's "Leatherstocking tales." The papers printed lengthy biographies of the American novelist whose stories still rank as favorites with German youth by whom Defoe, Cooper and Karl May are preferred to all other writers of adventure.

Dr. Rudolph Bessel says in the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung that "highbrow" educators who have attempted to oust Cooper from the place he holds in letters and who have not understood what an inspiration he is to the soul of a boy, have been routed by the youngsters, who will accept no substitute.

America will soon have an opportunity to guess the age of Mattia Battistini. The famous Italian baritone, who has just completed a series of successful concerts in Central Europe with Clara Dux, the German soprano, is leaving soon for New York for a series of concerts. Fraulein Dux who was in the United States last year, will accompany him.

Battistini's age is a mystery but there are no doubts as to the merits of his art.

Music critics insist that he was famous in opera forty years ago and estimate his age at anywhere from 66 to 78 years. He ranks with Lilli Lehmann in having preserved his voice long after his contemporaries went into retirement. He has seen two generations of German singers disappear from the operatic and concert stages.

Berlin never fails to give Battistini a crowded hall. Music students try to learn the secret of his method which like Lehmann's does not wear out the voice.

Miss Alice Criswell was a Franklin shopper in the city Saturday.

John Hitchens and J. A. Liter were among Literberry residents who paid the city a visit Saturday.

WHITE HALL MAN IS STRUCK BY AUTOMOBILE

John Wolfarth Has Head and Back Injured When Struck By Auto Friday Evening—Other News Notes From White Hall.

White Hall, Sept. 29.—John Wolfarth, aged about 35 years, residing with his mother on Jacksonville street, lies in his home with injuries about the head and back as the result of being struck by an automobile at the corner of Main and Carlville streets at 6:30 Friday evening.

Wolfarth had just alighted from a buggy on returning from his work on the farm with Henry Roodhouse. His hearing is defective and he did not notice the car approaching from the north. He was promptly moved to his home by Ward Edwards and Russell Roodhouse, where Dr. A. R. Jarman, assisted by Delbert Crabtree, dressed the injuries. The injuries to his back were giving great concern.

An address on lack of support of public officials in the enforcement of law characterized the opening meeting of the Brotherhood in the Presbyterian church Friday evening. The speaker was Thomas L. McKnight of Carrollton, state's attorney for Greene county who has an excellent record for law enforcement that has made him strong with the people as an active, efficient and capable official, and there is some criticism of the management of the Brotherhood for not making the engagement known to local press agencies in order to obtain a more general hearing. The dinner was excellently served, and the menu was equally excellent. E. C. Pearce presided. Lyndall Rose was elected secretary.

Next Monday night will be held the annual meeting of the stockholders of the White Hall Building and Loan Association. Renewed interest is being taken in this local building concern, and promises to be a large demand for the new series. No. 67, representing thirty three years that the association has been doing business in a substantial way. For twenty five years Attorney J. E. Greer has been serving as secretary, and during that time he has handled three quarters of a million dollars without a cent going astray so far as can be detected, as Mr. Greer states it. The present total assets figure $80,000. The renewed demand for stock in the new series comes from the lessons in civic development that have come in the past couple of years, during which time there has come a pretty general move to do the things that will rebound to the benefit of the community. Instead of so much money going to larger centers of finance in the form of insurance and fraternal dues, it is figured that investment in this stock keeps the money at home and at the same time builds up a savings account with interest, the stock being always held at par value and redeemable at par. Shares are 50c per month per share, and ten dollars per month invested in this way soon builds up a fund that is as good as many insurance investments. The directors whose terms expire are G. C. Fanning, F. N. McLaren and J. O. Raines. The association is managed by nine directors and is under state supervision. Secretary Greer says the business is growing out of proportion to the present salary of the secretary and that the job is one that he is willing to surrender to other shoulders.

SAFETY PATROLS

Moline, Ill. (By the A. P.)—A safety patrol, composed of the older boys of McKinley high school here, will act as guards during the time pupils are crossing streets near the school, according to I. R. Holt, school principal. In addition, safety stop signs have been placed about the streets adjacent to the school grounds, thus insuring the safety of the smaller children.

Owen Crum of Litterberry spent yesterday in Jacksonville on business.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Poultry Culling—Farm Advisers

prefer to cull poultry between July 15 and September 15. After September the fowls are apt to have completed their moulting and there is some danger of throwing out hens that ought to be retained. Demonstrations were given last week at Charles Scholfield's, Lynnville, and John Bergschneider's, Alexander. Requests have come in for demonstrations at Grover Whitlock's and William White's, at Murrayville and Sam Camm's at Franklin, C. R. Gibson's and W. J. Bottom's Pisgah. These will be given this coming week.

Copper Carbonate for Wheat Smut

The Sangamon county farm bureau will use the chemical in powder form in treating wheat for smut. It is being used in Madison and Jersey counties for flag smut. As a powder two ounces are mixed with one bushel of wheat. The only drawback is that the powder is difficult to get in large quantities.

Claims—The Transportation Department

of the I. A. A. recently secured an adjustment for Joseph K. Bergschneider of Alexander from a railroad company for excessive shrinkage due to the late arrival of a carload of hogs at Indianapolis. The local farm bureau office is responsible for a cash settlement by a firm that shipped binder twine to John Bergschneider and then were shown refunding the money when the twine was returned as unsatisfactory.

More Good Horses Good Dairy Cows and Flocks of Sheep

In this heading is mentioned an outstanding need of the county. The efforts of the farm bureau along livestock lines should be in this direction.

Agglutination Test for White Diarrhea in Poultry

The scientist can now draw blood from the wing of a mature fowl and prove the presence or absence of white diarrhea in a flock of poultry. Mrs. C. R. Gibson of Franklin is interested in having such a test made. Eggs from a flock found free from this disease sell at a premium.

Accredited Hatcheries

The commercial hatchery bids fair to displace old Biddy as a chicken raiser. Some are not particular about the source of their eggs and are liable to dump a heterogeneous mass of chicks on the purchaser. The College of Agriculture has started a move to accredit hatcheries and protect the public.

J.H.S. DOWNS I.S.D. IN HARD BATTLE

The Two Teams Were Evenly Matched and the Lines Held Like a Stone Wall—A Series of Forward Passes Enabled the H. S. to Score Lone Touchdown of the Game

Playing in mid-season form Jacksonville High school and the Illinois School for the Deaf grid-iron warriors battled on almost even terms at Illini Field yesterday afternoon, the high school winning the game 6 to 0.

With the temperature well above 80 the two football teams played a stiff game throughout, having little trouble keeping warmed up. Both teams showed up well, both lines held at critical points and the back field men played splendid football.

Owing to the recent rains the field was a little slippery but did not seem to slow up either team.

One of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a game between local schools was in attendance.

During the first period the ball was worked up and down the field with neither team being able to make much headway. Both lines were holding. The second period found the lines still like stone walls and neither team could gain consistently.

After the rest between halves the high school came back with a rush and carried the ball up the field on a series of plays that soon put it in a position for Johnson to go over for a touchdown.

Corbridge received a bad cut under his eye during the scrimmage and had to be plastered up. He gamely refused to leave the lineup and went back fighting. During the playing that followed it was necessary to stop twice to adjust Corbridge's bandages, but he stuck to the field.

The last period was a repetition of the first and second, neither team being able to gain consistently.

Both teams look good and Coach Robey Burns and Coach John Mitchell should give good account of themselves in the games that are to follow.

The story told by plays:

First Quarter

Hunt, Jacksonville High kicked off to Illinois School for Deaf and Wolf returned ball 10 yards. The Tigers were held on the first down. The Tigers gained five yards around right end. On the third down the Tigers gained three yards thru the line. The Tigers punted from their 30 yard line. Jacksonville High returning the ball five yards. Hunt gained 12 yards around right end. Hunt went thru the line for one yard. Arnold was thrown for a loss. I. S. D. held and Hunt punted to I. S. D. 40 yard line. The Tigers gained three yards thru right tackle. The I. S. D. boys went around right end for two yards. On a fake formation I. S. D. went thru left tackle for first down. I. S. D. was thrown for a three yard loss. The Tigers fumbled, but recovered, losing five yards. The Tigers gained five yards around right end. Jacksonville took time out. I. S. D. punted to J. H. S. 46 yard line. Hunt carried the ball thru right tackle for one yard. J. H. S. went thru the line for three yards. I. S. D. held and Hunt punted to the I. S. D. 35 yard line. The quarter ended with I. S. D. in possession of the ball.

Second Quarter

Crabbe bucked the line for 11 yards. J. H. S. was penalized five yards for offside play by Smith. On the next play, J. H. S. was penalized 15 yards on account of coaching from the sidelines. I. S. D. was thrown for one yard loss. I. S. D. carried the ball thru right guard for two yards. Clark replaced Schrader at left half. On the third down the ball was fumbled but I. S. D. recovered. J. H. S. held on the first down. I. S. D. gained three yards thru left tackle and was then thrown for a loss of three yards. I. S. D. punted to J. H. S. 10 yard line. On the first down J. H. S. gained two yards thru center. I. S. D. line held like a stone wall on the second down. J. H. S. gained three yards thru right tackle. Hunt then punted to I. S. D. 37 yard line. The ball went out of bounds. I. S. D. was penalized 15 yards for substitute talking before ball was put in play. As the quarter ended I. S. D. tried a forward pass which failed.

Third Quarter

I. S. D. punted to high school's 25 yard line. Arnold gained six yards around right end. Hunt went thru left tackle for two yards. Arnold passed to Arnold for 20 yards. Arnold went thru line for 15 yards. Hunt went thru right side of line for five yards. Arnold went around right end for two yards. Arnold passed 10 yards to Hunt. Time was taken out for Corbridge. Hunt gained two yards thru tackle. Hunt passed to Arnold who fumbled the ball which was recovered by I. S. D. on the high school's 10 yard line. I. S. D. punted to J. H. S. 35 yard line. I. S. D. was penalized 15 yards for roughness. Hunt carried the ball thru center for five yards. Hunt passed to Hopper for 20 yards putting the ball on the I. S. D. two yard line. Hunt went thru right tackle for one yard and on the third down Johnson carried the ball over for a touchdown. Hunt failed to kick goal. Score J. H. S. 6; I. S. D. 0. Hunt kicked off to Rose on the 10 yard line. Rose returned the ball 20 yards. I. S. D. carried the ball thru left tackle for five yards. On the second down Crabbe went thru guard for two yards; third down Taylor went around right end for two. On the fourth down I. S. D. plunged thru center for 20 yards. Score J. H. S. 6; I. S. D. 0.

Fourth Quarter

I. S. D. had the ball on J. H. S. 45 yard line. I. S. D. went thru right tackle for eight yards. They then went thru right guard for 10 yards. Taylor went around left end for 10 yards. Rose gained one yard around right end. On the next play Hopper broke thru the line and held his man in his tracks. I. S. D. went around right end for one yard. On the fourth down I. S. D. tried a forward pass which was incomplete, and it was J. H. S. ball on the I. S. D. 33 yard line.

Final Score

It was the high school's ball on the 33 yard line. First down. J. H. S. gained one yard thru left tackle. One yard thru left guard.

EXPECT TO WIN FIVE GAME SERIES

Murrayville Merchants and Indians Will Meet at South Side Park Today.

Weather permitting, today will end the five game series between the Murrayville Merchants and the Jacksonville Indians at South Side park at 2:45 o'clock. It is rumored that the visitors will have practically a new lineup in an attempt to annex the sugar game, as each team has claimed the mound for Murrayville.

Smith will use the same lineup as in last Sunday's game, besides having Dick Wheeler and Thomas DeLena in reserve in the utility role. This last named assistant who is now visiting in the city played the season of 1922 with Wichita as catcher and first baseman. During this season he has been playing with Chicago West-Side in the Mid-West league, catching Smithson of Winchester. He will appear in uniform and may be used before the close of the game.

If the weather continues to be good, on next Sunday the locals will open a three game series with the Quincy Cubs, a colored organization which has been highly recommended by both the Hannibal and Mercedia fans. They have the reputation of being hard, clean, players.

Word was received yesterday afternoon that Murrayville is bringing a large delegation of fans for the final game and Jacksonville can very handily use all of the rosters who can possibly attend.

The following team will do battle for the glory of the Indians, and may luck be with them: Wilson, 2b; Clark, c; Rubie, rf; Boyd, ss; French, cf; Christopher, lf; Carter, 1b; DePrates, 3b; Fanning, pitcher.

BABE RUTH STILL HAS FIGHTING CHANCE FOR BATTING HONORS

CHICAGO, Sept. 29. (By the A. P.)—Babe Ruth, proclaimed the most valuable player in the American League for 1923, today faces a fighting chance of adding the American League batting championship to his laurels, with the close of the season less than a week away.

The New York star must overcome a ten point lead held by Harry Heilmann of Detroit, to accomplish this achievement. Ruth managed to connect with only four hits in his last four games, giving him an average of .355, while Heilmann is pounding away at a .395 clip. Babe, however, is secure in home run honors with a total of 37, and is so far in front as a scorer there is no possible chance of being overtaken. He has counted 137 times. The averages include games of Wednesday.

Eddie Collins of the White Sox continues to show his heels to the base stealers with 44.

Roger Peckinpaugh of Washington and Hervey McClellan of the White Sox however have overtaken Collins in the sacrifice hit department and are tied for the lead with 37 each. Collins has 36 sacrifices. Other leading batters for 90 or more games:

Speaker, Cleveland, .375; J. Sewell, Cleveland, .360; Williams, St. Louis .353; E. Collins, Chicago .353; Jamieson, Cleveland, .344; Cobb Detroit, .343; Manush, Detroit, .335; J. Harris, Boston, .332.

National League

Rogers Hornsby of St. Louis seems likely to retain the 1923 batting championship of the National League. He is batting .344, which gives him a 10 point margin over Zach Wheat of the Dodgers.

Jimmy Bottomley, Hornsby's teammate is tagging close on the heels of the leaders, with an average of .367 for third place.

Max Carey of Pittsburgh is blazing the paths with 46 stolen bases. George Grantham, the Chicago speedster, is trailing with 41.

Cy Williams, the veteran Philadelphia outfielder, suffered a slump in his hitting, having dropped from .305 to .295 in a week. He failed to increase his home run record of 37 circuit drives, but has a safe lead to finish the season.

Young of New York and Carey of Pittsburgh are having a close race for run scoring honors. Young leading with 121 tallies, while Carey is three behind. Other leading batters:

Cueto, Mobile, .330; D. Williams, Mobile, .328; S. Clarke, Birmingham, .325.

MICHIGAN AGGIES LOSE TO U. OF C.

University's Lineup Shows Speed and Brilliant Play—Bad Passes Hurt Aggies Chance

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—The University of Chicago opened its 1923 football season today with a victory over the Michigan Aggies, 34 to 0. Within striking distance of the goal, the Chicago machine showed speed and drive, scoring two touchdowns from 20 yard forward passes, one from a series of line plunges, one on an Aggie fumble, and one on a pretty broken field run by Captain Jimmy Pyott.

Early in the first period the Aggies suffered from two bad passes from center for punts, Chicago recovering the second one behind the Aggie's goal for a touchdown. The Maroons completed five out of six passes, Kipke grabbing one for a 25 yard gain near the close of the game. The Aggies then turned to passes but failed. The only pass completed by the Aggies of many tried, was recalled for offside penalty against the Aggies.

Three of the Aggies' passes were intercepted, one of these paving the way for a Maroon touchdown. Dickson as receiver of the Pyott passes, was the Maroons' heavy scorer.

GENESARAZEN HOLDS GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

In Thrilling Match Defeats Veteran Hagen and Retains Crown Won Last Year at Oakmont—Hagen Worked Courageously but Sarazen Seems to Have Unnerved Him

PELHAM MANOR, N. Y., Sept. 29. (By the A. P.)—An amazing recovery shot from a cray-fish marsh beside the 35th hole at the Pelham Country club brought victory today for Gene Sarazen, the young Italian-American instructor of Briar Cliff Manor and defeat for Walter Hagen, the veteran, in the Professional Golfers' association's most thrilling title match. And upon Sarazen's head still rests the crown he won last year at Oakmont Park, Pa.

Victory for Sarazen in this, the first extra hole final match in the history of the professional championship tournaments, came after a courageous up-hill fight by Hagen, who had squared the match at the 35th hole after being three down at the 28th. They started on extra holes after Hagen had made an excellent recovery from a trap on the 36th for a half.

Both sank putts on more than five feet on the 37th for birdie fouls. Came then the tricky 38th, a 310 yard hole with a sharp curve to the green around a clump of trees. Hagen essayed a daring shot over the trees to the green. His ball stopped on the edge of a sand trap, beside the green. Undismayed by this shot Sarazen played for the hole. His ball fell short in marshy ground sprinkled with the mud mounds of Cray-fish. Selecting a mashie niblick he put the ball within two feet of the cup. This excellent shot drew the plaudits of the great gallery and when there was quiet Hagen stepped to his ball. Perhaps Sarazen's shot unnerved him for when he struck he looked up and his ball failed to carry out of the sand. His third got toward the cup and seemed as if it might go in, then rolled to one side. Sarazen did not hesitate with his putt. It trickled in and he was winner.

They had finished the morning round all even after being up and down one hole and even at several stages. Sarazen won the very first hole with a birdie. Hagen squared the match on the second. Hagen became one up at the sixth and Sarazen squared it again at the eleventh. Hagen again became one up at the thirteenth when Sarazen drove into the woods. Hagen drove two iron shots into a tree on the fourteenth and they were square again.

Sarazen won the 21st and the 23rd and he increased his lead to three up on the 25th by laying Hagen a stykie. Hagen finally squared on the 35th where, although his second was hooked out of bounds, he won five to six.

Jacobson's Good Work Credited with Saving Game—Williams Hits 29th Homer

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 29.—St. Louis divided a twin bill with Chicago today taking the first game 6 to 5 and losing the second by the same score. Jacobson apparently saved the first contest for the locals when he picked Collins' hard drive off the fence when two men were on base, and turned it into a double play. In the fourth inning Williams hit his 29th homer of the season. Hooper also hit a four bagger. The visitors won the second contest in the final session when Hooper singled, scoring Elsh. Elsh was running for Crouse who was passed. The game was marked by home runs by Collins and Tobin.

CHAMPAIGN TEAM MAY PLAY TIGERS

Coach Robey Burns announced Saturday evening that he had received an offer from the Champaign High school for a game in Jacksonville on October 13th.

This offer is an unusual honor for the local Tigers, as the Champaign team have always played only the leading teams in Illinois and Indiana, and in the course of six years have lost only two games. The Champaign team has always been considered very near to the college standard in football, and former Coach VanLieuw of the Champaign High is now coach at Knox college. As the bringing of this team here will cost quite a bit of money, Coach Burns feels that it is partly up to the local football fans and the friends of the Tigers as to whether they will be able to entertain the visitors on that date. The matter will be given immediate attention, and it is believed that enough support can be easily obtained to justify Coach Burns in closing with them.

Coach Burns has also received a very flattering offer for the appearance of the Deaf team at the Bowen High school in Chicago on Nov. 17th and has this matter under consideration at the present time.

CAPPS TEAM DEFEATED IN SPRINGFIELD

The local champions of the Twilight League, the Capps team, again met defeat at the hands of the Third Presbyterian church team, champions of the Springfield Twilight league, at Springfield yesterday afternoon by a score of 7 to 5.

At the end of the seventh inning the Jacksonville team led by a score of 5 to 0, but a number of errors by the visitors accompanied by a few hits allowed the Springfield aggregation to score seven runs in that one inning. Towers for the Capps team whiffed 12, while Walton and Lascody for the church boys were only able to make seven of the Jacksonville boys lay down their bats. Springfield garnered five hits while Jacksonville was connecting with seven offerings of the opposing pitchers. The hitting of McDaniels featured, he having credit for three bingles during the game.

The batters were: Jacksonville, Towers and McDaniels; Springfield, Walton, Lascody and Watt.

WAVERLY DEFEATED ROUTT HIGH TEAM

Local Team Lost Game by Score of 32 to 0—Could Not Solve Waverly Tactics

Route High met defeat Saturday at the hands of Waverly by a score of 32 to 0.

Route played poorly during the second and third quarters, being unable to solve the passing of the Waverly team. Route also fumbled considerably, two of the touchdowns resulting from fumbles near the goal line. On offense, Route played fairly well, and the playing of Sely and Gebert was excellent. Gebert tearing thru the line for several substantial gains, while Sely made several star tackles. Route was unable to hold its heavier opponents, as they have no second team to use in scrimmaging, something which most of the high schools have for practice.

Next Saturday the Route team will meet the Roodhouse High team and a hard battle is anticipated.

HOW THIS STORE SERVES ALL THE PUBLIC

There are many ways in which a clothing store may serve the people

Keeping up the standard of the merchandise is one

Keeping the prices down to the lowest possible notch is another

Then there is the duty of selecting the right styles; of providing ample selections; of employing salesmen with taste and intelligence to help you in your purchase; of competent tailors to make alterations for you

We are never satisfied here unless every customer goes out of our store with the clothes that are best for him; unless he has received his full money's worth in style as well as quality—in short, unless he is well dressed.

CASES IN COUNTY

The health department has recently been called upon to investigate one or two cases of scarlet fever in the county schools. One of these cases appeared at the Cross Roads school east of Woodson and the other in the Litchberry school. Representatives of the health department promptly conducted an examination in each of these schools, excluding from the schools all children showing symptoms of illness and looking up the absentee pupils to ascertain the cause of their absence. The parents of the children who were ill were advised to consult their family physician at once in order to prevent a spread of the disease, and it is believed that there will be no further trouble.

J. O. PRIEST CALLED BY DEATH LAST NIGHT

Well Known Local Attorney Passes Away After Long Illness—Funeral Tuesday Morning.

James O. Priest, who for thirty years has practiced law in this city, died at 7:25 o'clock last night at his home, 616 West State street. He had been in failing health since February, 1922, when he was stricken with influenza. This disease was followed by pernicious anemia, which ultimately caused his death.

The decedent was born at Bloomfield in Scott county on March 9, 1863, the son of Henry and Sarah Priest, and one of a family of twelve children. He received his early education in the common school at Bloomfield, and later taught school for a number of years in Scott county. As a young man he attended Valparaiso university and studied law. He later entered the office of Judge J. M. Riggs at Winchester, with whom he read law.

He was admitted to the bar of Illinois in 1890, upon examination before the State Supreme court. He then practiced in Winchester for two years, being associated with Judge James A. Warren. While in Winchester he served as city attorney, and also as deputy circuit clerk of Scott county.

Mr. Priest had been a member of the Morgan county bar for thirty years and was accounted as one of the prominent and useful citizens of Jacksonville. Those who knew him well realized the kindness and generosity of his spirit. He was a man of charitable instincts and without ostentation he aided many people. He was a man of firm convictions, ready at all times to defend the principles in which he believed. Nevertheless he was tolerant and willing to concede to others the right to differences of opinion. He was just and honorable in his dealings and commanded the respect of all who knew him.

He had been for years a member of Central Christian church and lived in accordance with the faith he professed.

Mr. Priest was married at Winchester Dec. 30, 1890, to Miss Florence Annie Hurd, who survives him together with two daughters, Misses Winifred and Martha Priest, both residing at home. One son, Henry Hurd Priest, died in infancy.

He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: John, William and T. J. Priest of Winchester; G. W. Priest of Glasgow, C. N. Priest of this city; Emily J. Welch and Mrs. Mariah E. Wilson, both of Glasgow, and Mrs. Ida B. Evans and Mrs. Sarah A. Davis, both of Winchester. Two sisters preceded Mr. Priest in death several years ago.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning from Central Christian church, in charge of Rev. Ivan W. Agee of Monmouth, a personal and intimate friend of the deceased. Interment will take place in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Vaught have returned to Jacksonville after an extended trip into the west and northwest. For a long period these Jacksonville people have been accustomed to spending some part of each year in travel for recreation but this year their trip was even more extensive than usual.

LONG TIME RESIDENT DIED SATURDAY

Mrs. Louis Fredlander Passed Away After Extended Illness—Funeral Will Be Held Tuesday Afternoon

After a long period of illness Mrs. Louis Fredlander passed away Saturday morning at 4:35 o'clock at the family home, one mile northwest of the city. Mrs. Fredlander who was 88 years of age, had spent practically all of her long life in this county and so had witnessed the marvelous changes as the country developed from pioneer days.

She was born March 14, 1835, in Beecher township, Union county, Pa., the daughter of George and Sarah Rentschler. When she was a child two years old the family came from Pennsylvania to Illinois and located near Concord, and the family home was maintained there thru the years. Mr. and Mrs. Rentschler being prominent among the earlier residents of the county.

As a young woman the deceased married Louis Fredlander, who was for a long period a well known resident of the county, identified with both business and political life.

For some years Mr. and Mrs. Fredlander and their family lived in Lynnville, but for a long period the family home has been at the present beautiful farm site northwest of Jacksonville. There thru the years of mature life and old age Mrs. Fredlander gave the best she had for family and friends. With her the best meant unstinted devotion and willing sacrifice for the pleasure and comfort of others. Those who knew her best knew that her thoughts of self were always last. It was due largely to Mrs. Fredlander's life and spirit that the cheerful atmosphere of her home was maintained all thru life. Though she had not been strong for years and in recent months her condition had been serious, Mrs. Fredlander was not confined to her room much of the time and even in recent weeks had been active in her household duties.

In her weakened condition the death of her daughter, Miss Minnie Fredlander, a few weeks since hastened her own passing. As a young woman Mrs. Fredlander became a member of the M. P. church at Concord. Her faith was well grounded and her interest in the church and religious affairs was maintained until the final summons came.

In return for her own love and affection, Mrs. Fredlander was accorded the unfailing devotion of her children. She is survived by two daughters and one son, Miss Emma and George Fredlander at home, and Mrs. Matthew Miller of this city. She leaves one brother, Jacob Rentschler of Grant City, Mo.

The funeral service will be held at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the residence, in charge of Rev. W. H. Marbach, and interment will be in Diamond Grove cemetery.

GIRL FLYING IN BIG CONTEST LANDS HERE

Miss Bertha Horschem, in Air for $2,000 Prize, Stops Here for Night—Local Flyer Enters Races

Late Friday evening an airplane carrying four persons landed in the field south of the Hart Massey farm. The plane was a Laird Swallow and was piloted by Miss Bertha Horschem of Minneapolis, twenty-one years old, full of pep, an experienced flier and a crack mechanic. Miss Horschem piloted her machine from Minneapolis to St. Louis and descended at Jacksonville for gasoline and oil and to spend the night. She left with her passengers at 6:30 yesterday morning. She was flying in a race with eighty contestants for a prize of $2,000, the aim being to fly the longest distance in the shortest time with the most weight in a machine with a 90 h. p. motor. Miss Horschem's machine was so heavily loaded that when it rose from the landing field here yesterday, it cleared the telephone wires by inches.

This morning at seven o'clock three 90 h. p. planes will "hop off" from the landing field to fly to St. Louis, where they will enter the Pulitzer airplane races, being held there Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

The pilots are Gay Hutson of this city, Ray Sinclair of Detroit and R. W. Mead of Chicago. All will be entered in the race of the 90 h. p. planes, which will occur on Tuesday.

Planes of every nation and of every type are assembling at St. Louis for the races. It is estimated that four hundred planes will be entered. One hundred machines tried out on the course yesterday. It is believed that all speed records will be smashed and that some of the fast planes will attain a speed of 280 miles an hour. The machines will race around a thirty-one mile triangular course. The judges will be stationed at the pylons or towers at the corners of the course.

REMAINS OF FIRST GEORGIA GOVERNOR WILL BE EXHUMED

Now Resting in Church of All Saints in England—Will be Brought to America and Given Final Rest in State He Founded—
Lady Oglethorpe's Remains Also to Come.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—(By the A. P.)—When the body of General Sir James Edward Oglethorpe, first governor of the state of Georgia, is disinterred from its resting place in the Church of All Saints in the little town of Cranham for removal to Atlanta, it is part of plan of those in charge of the excavation to take the body of Lady Oglethorpe to America with that of her husband.

Solemn religious services will mark the disinterment and a bronze tablet be placed over the graves in the Cranham church to commemorate the event. Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin, American Ambassador George Harvey, the archbishop of Canterbury and other distinguished personages will be asked to participate in the embarkation ceremonies at Tilbury, where an American battleship will receive the bodies for conveyance to Savannah.

It was from Tilbury, near Gravesend, that Oglethorpe and his venturesome colonists set sail nearly 200 years ago for the promised land of America. The battleship will follow the same course as the quaint three-masted schooner in which Oglethorpe and his companions crossed the ocean.

Criticism Answered. Answering the adverse criticism which arose in England over the disturbance of the graves, Dr. Thornevell Jacobs, president of Oglethorpe University, who will take the body to America said:

"The proposal is neither a private enterprise nor is it one involving the indiscriminate disturbance of the remains of others, but it is a dignified request of one great people of another, with the most reverent and solemn purpose. In seeking to have his body returned to the state which he founded, planned and nourished single-hearted and single-handed, the people of Georgia are re-emphasizing the essential unity of tradition, law, literature, religion, blood and interests of the two great branches of the English speaking world.

"Oglethorpe made Georgia. The record of his life is the light of the state. It was here that he planted the very flower of all that was best in the life of England. His influence will be more surely felt today if his remains are fittingly enshrined, as proposed, in the capital city of his state, on the campus of the university which bears his name.

"It is the first time that an American commonwealth has claimed the ashes of its founder from overseas, and I am confident that the British ecclesiastical and governmental authorities will heartily endorse the idea when they see that the American government and the whole state of Georgia are behind the project."

Only one item of information remains to be sent from this side of the Atlantic about Papyrus, Europe's best press agented equine since the days of the famous wooden horse of Troy; otherwise every move and motion, whim and whisper of the derby winner who sailed to America on the Aquitania for a race with the best American three-year-old has been chronicled.

Papyrus has been thoroughly introduced to American newspaper readers but the real identity of the match-maker for the Belmont Park classic was only disclosed when Ben Irish, departing for America with his thoroughbred, announced that the followers of the turf owe a debt of gratitude to no less a personage than the astute American envoy of the Court of St. James for instituting the negotiations which resulted in Papyrus' visit to the United States.

When Major August Belmont conceived the idea of such a race it was before ambassador Harvey that he first laid his plan, and Mr. Harvey found little difficulty in diverting his match-making ability from politics to the turf, putting the silent machinery of modern diplomacy into action with speedier resources than are usually contained in international matters.

When, therefore, Major Belmont's representatives arrived in England, all that remained to be done was to sign the articles, call in the newspapermen and the race was on.

EDUCATION MEANS MORE THAN MONEY

Thought Accented by Secretary of Educational Board of M. E.
Church at Chicago Meeting.

Chicago, Ill.—The rewards of Christian education are much wider than the individuals or families directly concerned, according to Dr. F. W. Sheldon, assistant secretary of the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church here.

"Some people may count the money they make with their education. Others may make more money without very much education in their working capital. The question is not simply one of personal gains. The state with the lowest percentage of illiteracy has the highest average wage, but Massachusetts did not build schools and establish a college before she began to build factories, chiefly to boost wages. Her people were interested primarily in developing a Christian civilization. Education pays in money both the individual and the state and it pays even more in many more precious values.

The Educated Man. "The cave man did not know much and he did not do much for anybody except himself. The educated man can hardly avoid doing a great deal for other people. If his disposition or spirit is properly developed as well as his mind he may do a very great deal for others.

"Education pays, especially Christian education, because it stimulates all that is good in civilization from the center to the circumference. It is a necessity of life for the church. Christianity without education is inconceivable. The very statement is a contradiction in terms. A nation whose objectives are not chosen and whose course is not chartered by Christian Education may become like a pirate ship at sea, dangerous to others and to itself.

"Christian education is not like a specified volume of water delivering a guaranteed amount of power at any given point. It is more like a river, fertilizing and beautifying all the country through which it flows. It possesses a pervasive, permeating quality that cannot be confined. Its energies and benefits are wisely diffused. They are conferred fully upon all who will 'listen in.'"

SLOW PAYMENTS HINDER- ING BUSINESS

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., Sept. 28.—Roger W. Babson has been making a careful analysis of credit conditions based on reports from his various correspondents throughout the United States. His findings reported today are of unusual interest to all business men and investors.

"Careful students of the financial situation are surprised at the action of the 'Reserve Ratio Figures' of the Federal Reserve banks and the similar figure for the New York banks," says Mr. Babson. "With the tremendous amount of gold in the country and with new gold constantly being mined, it seems strange that this figure should increase. Furthermore, even although this is the crop moving season there seems no logical reason why our banks should put out additional currency. There is an abundance of money in the country for all legitimate needs. The only difficulty is that too much of it is being used in illegitimate ways, and too much is being hoarded in sections where it is not being needed. The country does not need to issue more money, but the farmers and legitimate business instead of speculators in stocks, food stuffs, and wearing apparel should have the use of the billions already issued. Eliminate special and unreasonable storage and there will be money enough for every legitimate need in every line of industry.

"Yet this speculation in stocks and commodities does not account for the clogging which is taking place today in our credit system. Of the various reasons advanced I believe the fundamental difficulty is due to the fact that people are not paying their bills. Ever since the decline in business, which began a few months ago, there has been a tendency to manufacturers, jobbers, retailers, and consumers to slow up in their payment of bills. Of course, the whole thing is an endless chain. Just as soon as one link stops the entire chain must slow down. Yet there is absolutely no reason for such action. It is psychological or moral condition rather than an economic condition. Business and the flow of money is like the flow of blood in one's veins. Anything which retards circulation harms everyone.

"An analysis of the balance sheets of our large industries shows that they are very largely 'mae or unmae' by their 'accounts receivable,' which is simply the accountant's name formoney being owe to them. For instance, the fertilizer business, as a business, is perfectly sound. Not only are fertilizers needed but they are needed more every year. It is a fundamental industry and yet most of the fertilizer companies are having very hard sledding at the present time, and their securities are selling very low. The reason primarily is that farmers are buying fertilizers on credit and are not paying their bills. The chain stores, on the other hand, are very flourishing today and their stocks are selling high. The main reason for this is that these chain stores are doing a cash business. They have no 'accounts receivable' and are able to discount their bills and carry large cash balances.

"In the case of almost every corporation the credit policy is an important factor and any investor buying securities today should give it careful consideration. This is especially true today when industrial stocks are so much more popular than railroads and public utility stocks. Notwithstanding their troubles the railroads and public utilities do a cash business. This applies not only to transportation companies, but also to lighting and telephone companies.

"All of this means that one of the best things we can do to bring back prosperity is to promptly pay our bills. Moreover, this applies to wage workers as well as employers; to retailers as well as manufacturers; to people in small country towns as well as to people in the large cities. The little bills must be paid. Before the manufacturer can pay his bills, the wholesaler must pay the manufacturer; before the jobber can pay the wholesaler, the retailer must pay the jobber; and before the retailer can pay the jobber, you and I must pay him. Prompt settlements will do much toward keeping the business from going lower. The Babson chart now shows it at 10 per cent below normal."

ALTON REFUSES TO REPLACE OLD HALL

Has Rejected for Sixth Time
Proposition to Replace Reverend City Hall with New One.

ALTON, ILL. (AP)—Speaking the sixth and decisive time, the voice of the City of Alton, the one time commercial center of the West, has definitely rejected a proposal to replace its old city hall, or revered memory, with a "gaudy, up-to-date" new building.

Five times the voters had declined to approve a bond issue for a new building, dreading to think of the destruction of the old city hall which has stood on the river banks since 1856, taking an inseparable part in all the life of the city. It was on the east side of the building that Lincoln and Douglas in 1858, held one of their debates before the newness of the old building had worn off.

Will of these people has now become the law. Fearing a change of sentiment they thought of a way to clinch their cause and had a $75,000 bond issue proposed, for restoring the old building as it was in Lincoln's time. This bond issue passed, just as easily, as all others had failed. Architects have already planned the restoration.

Built in 1856

When Daniel Braznell built the hall in 1856, it had tall columns on the side facing the Mississippi river. These columns will be restored. Mayor John Elbie has prepared to vacate the building, so the re-arrangements may commence at once, and continue throughout the winter.

Before the present building was erected, it was upon the site of it, that Alton residents waited for word of the outcome of the only duel Abraham Lincoln ever consented to enter. General James Shields, the then state auditor had challenged him, and Lincoln had named cavalry broadswords as the weapons, and the land across from Alton as the spot. This land called "Shield's Island" is plainly seen from the city hall. The story is often recalled although the duel was not fought. It was settled after the men and their seconds had arrived on the grounds. It was caused by a letter written by Lincoln in a Springfield newspaper, signed "R. Elieca," ridiculing the action of the Democratic state administration, which had ruled that state bank notes should not be received in payment for taxes.

Architects who are directing the restoration of the building are Jas. Maupin and John Pfeifferberger.

OLD DANCES HOLD POPULAR DESPITE PROFESSOR EDICT

Resolutions Adopted by International Congress of Dancing Do Not Change People's Fancy—Paderewski Coming to America on Concert Tour—Advent of Auto Noted.

PARIS, Sept. 29.—(By the A. P.)—The shimmy, fox trot and tango still are the favorite dances of Paris despite the resolution adopted by the International congress of dancing professors, just concluded, that the popular dance should be selected from American labelled steps.

The Mississippi trot, Rheo Boston, El Paso double, Schottische Blues and the Frisco step will be put before the European dancing public as the 1923-24 season's best. Dances with continental names, such as Coquette and Valse Espagnole, Asiatic Japanese step and Africa and Negro Sambs received scant consideration from the dancing masters, the so-called "American" dances winning in a walk.

The Mississippi trot is the creation of Miss Gottlieve of Copenhagen, while John Koensers of Nimeguen, Holland, is responsible for the Rheo Boston. The El Paso double was originated by Mr. and Mrs. Mottie of England and Alberto di Francia of Italy, is the introduction of the Schottische Blues. The Frisco step is the work of M. Valentin, of Paris. In spite of its melancholy name, the Schottische Blues won first place as the choice of the dancing professors, with the Mississippi trot second.

Delegates from Belgium, England, France, Holland, Italy and Spain attended the congress.

Paderewski, preparing to leave for America on a long concert tour, has had his hands insured for $50,000. He wears extremely thick white gloves to protect his fingers, even in fairly warm weather.

The master has returned heart and soul to his original calling. When politics is mentioned he merely shrugs his shoulders and says he is unwilling to place himself in a situation to receive a reproach similar to that given him by former Premier Clemenceau during the Versailles peace conference. When the Tiger was informed that Paderewski, then premier of Poland, was the former great musician he said to Paderewski: "You've fallen from great heights by entering politics."

Printed velvet is a novelty of the Paris winter season. Models are to be seen in practically every dress-maker's establishment and are beginning to dot the boulevards, the fashionable tea houses and the theaters. They are mostly of Chinese designs and always of soft warm colors.

Printed fabrics for frocks, coats and evening wraps are also gradually replacing the gorgeously-trimmed frocks where printed batik and printed Mousseline de soie were used. Printed velvet, often combined with metal embroidery, adds to the rich effect, making an especially striking combination of evening wraps.

France recently celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the appearance of the automobile in this country. While the original self-propelled vehicle, which crawled thru the streets of Le Mans yesterday, is a far cry from the luxurious limousines of 1923, France claims the credit of inventing horseless carriages.

"Obéissant," as the first French automobile was called, was built in 1873 by Amedee Bollee, of Le Mans, and is still well preserved. But there is no danger of being arrested for exceeding the speed limit as it weighs almost ten thousand pounds, is steam propelled, and negotiates about 15 miles in an hour and a half. Forty years ago it travelled from Paris to Vienna, averaging 15 miles an hour.

There are now 389,000 automobiles in France, or about one to every hundred of the people, as compared to ten million cars in the United States, or one to every ten.

Stoves, ranges and furnaces, the best goods, at unusual prices. If you are thinking of buying don't pass up this sale. Terms to suit.

Conservatory Notes

The Conservatory has finished its first week of the year 1923-24 and finds all its departments well filled. New students have entered every day since registration days and the attendance promises to be one of the best for a number of years. Much interest has been expressed by the students as well as the parents over the Progressive Series of Piano Instruction which Miss Peck and Mrs. Foreman are teaching, after the first lessons, which are ordinarily difficult and trying for the younger students.

Miss Peck played a group of piano solos at the High school last Tuesday, Sept. 25th, and gave a short talk on Wednesday, also in the High school, on the Progressive Series of Piano Lessons.

Mrs. Foreman taught a large class of piano students at her home in Kane, Ill., this summer and a students' recital was given in September shortly before her arrival in Jacksonville.

Mr. Kritch and Mr. Minger are spending Sunday in St. Louis.

Forest Sietkin a former student in the Conservatory, was a visitor here the past week.

Alvin Wessler, who received his teacher's certificate in piano last June from the Conservatory, is now studying at Concordia college in Springfield and has charge of a class of piano students in the college.

The New Jewett Six Brougham, $1325
Lasting Lustre, Baked Enamel Finish by New Process

QUITE the smartest car the season has produced—just the achievement you'd expect from Paige engineers. Jewett Six Brougham at $1325 gives peak quality—the best value the Paige organization ever produced for the money.

How Jewett Brougham steel body panels are enamel dipped for separate baking

The lasting lustre finish is the result of a new process. Each steel body panel is separately dipped three times in finest black enamel, then baked—then separately fastened to the extra-large, extra-strong wood body frames. Wood frames—not steel—because wood reduces noise, absorbs vibration. Lift the rear seat cushions. See the steel body panels enameled on the inside, too—no rusting possible.

Never before could this finish be placed on a wood frame body. The intense baking heat would burn the frames. But separate pre-enameled and baking give you a car of lasting lustre. It gives the Jewett Six Brougham the rich black gloss all over the car, seen only on fenders of other cars. Trust Paige to contribute such a step toward lasting good looks!

Full, roomy comfort for five—extra long leg room in front. Two individual front seats which both fold forward, give easy entrance and exit from either side. Rear seat is of full width for three. Interior finish the kind you'll be proud of. Upholstered in velour. Remove the rear seat cushion and there's room for sample trunk or cumbersome baggage. Commodious trunk on rear is extra well made.

Like all Jewetts the Brougham has full 50 horse-power, Paige-built motor that fills the hood.

Hollow crank-shaft high pressure oiling system gives silent smoothness and long life. Paige-Timken axles front and rear; ball-bearing steering spindles; 6-inch-deep frame. Ruggedness throughout that explains Jewett's acknowledged stamina.

Jewett Brougham performs like all Jewetts—goes from 5 to 25 miles an hour in 7 seconds, in high gear, from 2 to 60 miles an hour, in high. Passes most any car on any hill. Gear shifting is rare, and easy when you do shift.

Business men, salesmen, farmers, wives with children to look after—everyone will welcome this new Jewett Brougham. It is smart in appearance—permanently good looking. No apologies for the looks of the finish—requires no attention but washing.

We are proud to have you drive this new 5-passenger Brougham yourself for any kind of a test you want—performance, comfort, good looks, safety and for convenience.

Illinois College Notes

The silver loving cups which are to be presented to the College literary societies, making the highest averages in scholarship have been received and are now on exhibit in the show window of Russell and Thompson Jewelry Store. It will be remembered that these cups are being donated by George W. Govert, 35, of Quincy, one in memory of his father and the other in memory of his mother. They are to be known as the William H. Govert and Rosa F. Govert trophies. One will be awarded each semester to the boys' literary society making the highest average in scholarship, and the other to the girls' society. Any society which wins a cup six times will be permitted to retain it as its permanent property. The cups are very beautiful in design. The first award of the cups will probably be made at the chapel service at the college next week Friday.

Mrs. Mary O. Busby, who is visiting at the home of her nephew, Dr. R. O. Busby, gave a brief address to the students at the chapel exercises Friday morning. Mrs. Busby, who is a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Illinois spoke of the cordial feeling which exists between Illinois College and the University of Illinois, due to a large measure to the fact that Jonathan Baldwin Turner while on the faculty of Illinois College, instituted the college land grant plan whereby the University of Illinois was established.

The October issue of the Illinois College Alumni Quarterly will soon be issued. Henry Caldwell '17, instructor in English and Public Speaking at the college will again have charge of the magazine as editor-in-chief. Cole Y. Rowe, ex-'07 is the business manager of the paper.

The students of the College greatly appreciate the cordial welcome given them at the church socials last Thursday evening. From their reports on the 11th, every one of the students had a very fine time.

The first meeting of the freshmen girls' society Alpha Eta Pi, was held in the recreation room at Academy Hall Friday evening. At the meeting the former society girls who are now sophomores turned the minutes of meetings over to the freshmen girls. They elected Lavinia Scott as president pro tem and Myra Bobbitt secretary.

Lester V. Smith of Grand Ridge, Illinois, was a visitor on the campus Thursday. Smith was a student in Wipple Academy from 1911 to 1917. Mr. Smith expects soon to enter a school of pharmacy.

President and Mrs. Rammelkamp went to Quincy on Saturday for a week end visit with Mr. and Mrs. George W. Govert.

The Rev. William Marbach of State Street church will speak to the students at the chapel service Wednesday morning.

Cash W. Ufford of Canton, Ohio, '01, was a visitor in the city at the end of the week. Mr. Ufford is the editor of the Canton News and was formerly connected with a large newspaper in Birmingham, Alabama.

The first meeting of the Boys' Glee club was held Friday evening in the College chapel. Mr. Hedge, head of the Voice Department of the Conservatory will direct the club.

President and Mrs. Rammelkamp went to Quincy on Saturday for a week end visit with Mr. and Mrs. George W. Govert.

The many demands for lessons at the West Side Studio have made it necessary to install a second piano, thus accommodating all such pupils. Miss Kirby's pian class on Saturday morning has proved so popular that an assistant has been secured to help her in the work.

Miss Lulu Hay spent part of the summer at Petoskey, Michigan, being asked to give classes in Theory and Harmony, as well as private lessons in piano. Miss Sapio and Miss Horsburgh are returning on October 12th to 805 West North street for the winter, where they will be joined shortly by Mrs. Horsburgh and Miss Jessop, their housekeeper.

Madame Colard and Miss Horsburgh were soloists at a recent party given to the faculty and students by the College Y. W. C. A.

Madame Colard sang Thursday night at the young people's social at the Christian church. During the summer vacation she visited musician friends in Chicago, hearing numerous concerts and opera performances.

Mrs. Forrest spent July and August in Asbury park, attending musical events, among which was a recital by Galli-Curci in the auditorium.

The dates of Artist Series and Faculty recitals are as follows: Oct. 15—Jan Chippusso, pianist. Oct. 22—Director Pearson, organist. Nov. 5—Mme. Toft-Colard, soprano. Nov. 12—Telnanyi, violinist. Nov. 26—Olga Sapio and Beatrice Horsburgh, piano and violin.

Jan. 21—Pasmore Trio, violin, piano, cello. Feb. 12—Lola Rieder, soprano. Feb. 18—Mrs. Painter-Forrest, Miss Kirby, voice and piano.

Jan Chippusso, who opens the Artist Series on October 15th, is one of the great pianists of today. A pupil of Raoul Pugno and Frederic Lamond, he fulfilled the prophecies of these teachers, by scoring instant and great successes in the principal cities of Europe. Mr. Chippusso's recitals in New York and Chicago established him in the reputation of pianists, critics uniting in praising him as a powerful artist, bold in interpretation and technique. All music lovers should take advantage of this unusual opportunity of hearing Mr. Chippusso on October 15th.

A course is being offered this year by the college in child culture and kindergarten music. Students will learn teaching methods under Miss Grimley at the West Side Studio and will take the necessary theoretical, vocal and piano work at the College of Music. It is expected to have a large enrollment.

CLOTHING MEN BACK FROM CONVENTION

Several Local Merchants Return From National Meeting In Chicago—Four Thousand in Attendance.

T. M. Tomlinson, Dallas Hagan, Louis and William Deutsch, Lee Davis and Charles McGinnis returned late Friday evening from Chicago, where they spent the week in attending the annual convention of the National Clothiers' association. The sessions of the convention were held on the Municipal Pier and about 4,000 clothing merchants from all parts of the United States were in attendance. Convention headquarters were at the Congress Hotel.

The association is in a flourishing condition. It is seeking to be of direct service to the public in its efforts to eliminate fraud and misrepresentation from the clothing trade. One of the most profitable sessions was that in which the younger men in the business had complete charge. They had a number of helpful and progressive ideas to present, which were well received.

Mr. Tomlinson and Louis Myers of Springfield are the representatives from Illinois on the board of directors of the national association. A number of other local clothing merchants are members of the association but could not arrange to attend the convention.

Arrangements for the convention in 1924 will be made later by the board of directors and the meeting place will be selected.

Orville Crum was a Litterberry visitor in the city, Saturday.

Curtain Your Windows with Sunshine

The newest thought in window draping is the use of curtains which, having a touch of color, give warmth and "feeling" to the room even on dismal days!

In short, the vogue for gloomy rooms is past; fashion now demands that you curtain your windows with "Sunshine."

The accepted material to gain this effect is the new Quaker Oxford Cross Net (also curtains). This new curtaining (tubproof and sunproof) has woven in it just the touch of color needed to produce the desired Sunshine effect.

You will want to see this fashionable new curtaining; we shall be delighted to show it to you; by another season everyone will know Oxford Cross net, the Sunshine curtaining.

This is one of the surprises we have for you for

Home Craft Week October 1st to 6th

Many other interesting new curtainings await your selection of the right material for your home to suit your personality. For example—

SAMPLAR LACE

For Colonial Rooms

The problem of decorating the colonial room has been to get a curtaining quaint and colonial in spirit, yet light and transparent, to meet the need of modern windows and well-heated homes, where it is no longer more important that a curtain keep out the cold than to let in the light. SEMPLAR LACE is the ideal solution of this problem.

CASEMENT LACE

The last word in the English casement treatment, for combined in this delightful curtaining is the semi casement cloth effect—plus the interest of design and the transparency of a veiling.

CROCHET TUSCAN

(Hand Finished)

Here's the latest development of the genuine Quaker Tuscan Net which took the decorators by storm a season or so ago. The virile masculine effect of the original Tuscan is still further emphasized by the hand-crocheted effect of this new line.

FILET GRANDEE

"The Aristocrat of Filets"

Dignity and strength is the keynote of this window curtaining; it has that aristocratic quality of the old big-mesh soft-yarn Italian handmade filet—the most remarkable curtaining ever produced by other than entire hand work.

OXFORD CROSS NET

"Makes Any Room a Sun Parlor"

Have you a sun parlor that isn't always sunny; or a north room that never is; or a living room that needs a "bit of brightening"? Use Oxford Cross Net. This net is a gossamer fabric in which a touch of sunshine has been caught and held.

THE BEST PLACE TO TRADE AFTER ALL

COMPARE

The Maximum of Proved vs. Many Extravagant Claims
Intrinsic Value of Superiority

SO many announcements of new model cars contain extravagant claims for the same superlatives that it is puzzling to the buyer to know which value is real and which is only a claim.

This year the issue has been confused by the introduction of mechanical changes, some of which have been rushed into production while still in the experimental stage—and then immediately given wide publicity.

Important considerations have been overlooked and great stress placed upon unimportant details.

But the man who intends to buy a motor car need not let this confusion or this glamour of publicity lead him to make a mistake or risk satisfaction in his purchase. The automobiles themselves are available for comparison.

See and be convinced. Riding is believing. As an aid to intelligent buying we offer the following suggestions:

Place the 1924 model Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car at $995 alongside any car you may select as belonging in the same class. Every car looks well in the picture—most cars make a good impression in their own show windows. The Studebaker Light-Six looks a winner alongside the best-looking competitor you can find. And it's larger, more substantial, roomier, more comfortable looking—and is more comfortable.

Compare the top. Look inside and out. The Studebaker top is sturdily built. Has four stout cross bows. Top material is same as is so satisfactorily used in the Big Six. Notice the fit, feel the quality. The rear curtain is one piece—has no seams—with a large rectangular window bound by an enameled moulding.

Compare the body. Studebaker has a remedy, substantial, carefully made body—all steel even to its framework, which permits a finish in baked enamel. A depressed belt line runs around the body and through the hood and radiator, adding to its distinctive appearance.

Compare the one-piece, rain-proof windshield, with built-in cowl lamps, with the ordinary two-piece windshield with rubber strip that leaks in every rain and always obstructs the driver's vision. Notice the large cowl ventilator that is quickly operated by merely moving the regulator backward or forward.

Compare the Studebaker door trimmings and fittings with the door fittings of other cars. Notice that the door pocket flaps have weights to hold them in position. Man-sized door handles and latches, positive-action door locks that catch with a snap and stay closed. Heavy hinges properly located and proportioned. Highest grade trimming material instead of painted cardboard. Fastening nails concealed.

Compare the aluminum-bound floorboards that is neatly fitted and fastened to the floor boards of this $995 Studebaker Light-Six with the rubber mats that cover the cheap, loosely-fitted floor boards in many other cars.

Compare the cheap robe rail (sometimes hemp rope covered with imitation leather) with the Studebaker nickel-plated rail. Compare the forty-cent footrest with the comfortable, carpet-covered footrest, supported by polished aluminum brackets, in the Studebaker.

These comparisons are of features that can be seen. There are many more down under the surface that could be mentioned, such as the machining of all surfaces of the crankshaft and connecting rods of the Light-Six motor. This is largely responsible for the practical absence of vibration in the Studebaker Light-Six. This is an exclusive Studebaker practice on cars at this price.

If competition is so far inferior in its visible parts, it is a certainty that the hidden parts which really determine the satisfaction of a car will be equally inferior.

The Studebaker chassis is as far superior to any other motor car chassis in its price field as Studebaker upholstery is to other upholstery, as the Studebaker body is to any other motor car body in its price field.

Come in and see the Light-Six. Test its performance and comfort yourself. Again—Riding is believing.

POWER & COMFORT

LET JACKSONVILLE BEAT ITS OWN RECORD

Editor Journal:—
The writer wonders if he is by himself when he is thinking of Jacksonville, being set back materially by this aggregation of, (shall I call it junk?) show stuff blocking public thoroughfares, and creating such a jargon of confused noises as it is next to impossible to hear or be heard within a block of the public square.

If this is an ideal entertainment for the class of people that Jacksonville boasts of, then I have the strong notion of the amusements of people, one or the other.

I think of Jacksonville as an educational and religious center with a class of inhabitants that would select a different class of amusement and entertainment from what might be chosen in a mining camp or a raft town on a river side.

If our business men like it, and it has made them money, that is not sufficient reason for having it. If the American Legion has enjoyed it or profited by it, that does not justify our city management in allowing it.

If any man can, by any stretch of imagination, see how any gain in dollars and cents to our city or its people, can come from this week of confusion, discomfort and inconvenience, that is on any measure commensurate with the effect the whole thing has on the general atmosphere of the home life of our city, and the wrong impression given the many guests and tourists who daily find their way among us. I will grade him a hundred per cent imaginary.

If we must submit to this class of amusement, then in the name of every orderly business management, take it to a suburban lot, and let those who enjoy it, go and spend all they can spare after their bills are all paid to our local merchants, newspapers and public utilities, schools and churches.

May this expression of an individual tend to help us discover ourselves as a city; a city differing from cities that are classed as "big business cities, industrials or shipping centers; a city of high class homes, of high class people, an educational center, a city of churches and highest ideals that education and religion can produce.

Let us take care of the ideals of our boys and girls, and our boys and girls will take care of the future of Jacksonville.

GOLDEN-ROD

The year's crown is the golden-rod,
Harvest-symbol with sheaf and pod,
Over the fields in bright festoons
The glory spilled from harvest moons,
Past the stript trees' naked spars
Offering its wealth up to the stars.

And when the summer wraith forlorn
Shudders in the withered corn,
As harsh as blackbird calls and often,
(Soft winds cannot, cannot soften)
Morning mist or evening haze
The gold shines Thru, a hallowed blaze

Forever yearly on these spots,
A medley of rich golden blots,
By all trod down, race after race
Indifferent to its sovereign grace,
It blooms again, and yet will bloom
When the last man is gone to his doom.

Higher, higher lift your gold,
Till all our human throng behold—
Till all the sky's blue corners nod
Upon a sea of golden-rod;
Higher lift your golden waves
Above forgotten ancient graves.

THOUSANDS OF BONUS CLAIMS ARE READY

Clocks In Hands of Auditor But Money From Bonds Is Not Available.

There are now 44,000 bonus claims approved and ready to be paid as soon as money is available from the bonds, according to information given out yesterday by State Auditor Andrew Russell.

Until the bonds are sold, no claims can be paid. Up to date 58,000 have been paid, but this is only about a fifth of the 273,000 claims that have been filed.

It was estimated before $55,000,000 bond issue was submitted to the public that there would be 340,000 claims, the average claim being figured at approximately $160. There are still claims being filed every day and the total number may reach the amount that was estimated.

For a while it was feared that the $55,000,000 bond issue would not be sufficient to pay all the claims. The first claims received averaged higher, than $160 but since then they have been lower. The men who had little coming were late to apply.

As soon as the next bonds are sold all the claims now approved will be paid promptly. The checks are now in the hands of the auditor, ready to be mailed when the money is on hand.

S. S. L. CAN FIND USE FOR WASTING FRUIT

Recently a Jacksonville citizen telephoned the Social Service League that two bushels of fruit, wasting under their pear tree could be had for some needy family.

The Social Service League knew exactly the family, a mother and seven children, who would be most grateful. In more prosperous times the cellar shelves had rows on rows of their own canning but since the fathers' desertion, mostly empty jars are in evidence.

Two of the boys with a rickety push cart have gathered fuel during the summer and once more the cart was pressed into service for the pear gathering.

Probably there are other persons having a surplus of fruit or vegetables which they wish to share. If so, the Social Service League Telephone Main 26, will gladly receive such notice.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

Interesting talks have been given at chapel by Dr. Stearns of the Department of Religious Education and by Rev. C. D. Robertson, pastor of Centenary M. E. church. Dr. Stearns spoke to the faculty and students on the 19th and 20th and Rev. Robertson on the 28th. Dr. Stearns is planning to give a series of lectures in connection with his work at the college. The proceeds of these lectures will be used in the department. Dr. Stearns will have for his subjects the following topics:

Egypt and the Nile
The Land of Saul and David
Samaria and Galilee
The Land between the Rivers
On the track of the Apostle Paul.
Dr. Stearns has been for many years a lecturer in this field, has travelled the ground over personally, and has collected an excellent lot of working material.

Miss Boyd, director of the Department of Physical Education, will announce the schedule of hours available in the swimming classes, so that those interested in taking swimming lessons or using the pool, will make plans accordingly. It is hoped to have the work begin the first week in October. Any one having this in mind should make reservation for time.

Mr. Wallace of Canton, Ill., was a visitor at the college Wednesday evening and Thursday morning of this week. His daughter, Miss Janette Wallace, was a member of the class of 1923, but was taken ill during her senior year and died after several months of illness. Mr. Wallace wanted to visit the school and get acquainted with the friends of his daughter and to express his appreciation personally of the kindness shown her while she was a student at the college.

Mrs. Sieverdena Harmel Eden of Washington, D. C., is a visitor at the college over the week end. Mrs. Eden formerly lived in Pekin, Ill., and was a member of the Class of 1915.

Mrs. Alice Dolbow returned to her home at Detroit the latter part of the week after spending several days at the college. Mrs. Dolbow formerly had charge of the office and came to assist in the opening rush of the school days.

Miss Marian McOmber left Friday for a trip up north in the interest of the Alumnae Association. She expects to visit the various centers where the societies are located.

The college has just received an invitation to be represented at the inauguration of President Comstock at Radcliffe College on October 20th. Miss Amy Facht, a member of the faculty of Simmons College in Boston, will represent Illinois Woman's College as the official delegate.

HOG SALE

J. L. Henry announces his annual sale of Big Type Poland-China Hogs Oct. 16 to be held in his new sale pavilion at Woodson, Ill., 8 miles south of Jacksonville on C. & R. R. R. R., commencing promptly at 12:30 p. m.

It is to be remembered that Mr. Henry won first in each class of boars shown at the Scott County Fair this year, including first on Get of Sire on four wonderful fall boars by his big Col. Pickett boar the senior and Grand Champion in the same show. He also showed at the Morgan County Fair in much greater competition, only losing one first, but took second in the class, then winning first second and third in the next class. Then winning get of sire, champion and grand champion with Col. Pickett. He did not show any sows at all at either fair as they were all busy at home preparing to raise more pork.

Mr. Henry stated that three senior boar pigs by Col. Pickett and out of a Liberator dam showed at our county fair winning first second and third in the class would have won the same honors at the State Fair as the boars that were fourth and fifth here were first and second there, under the same judge.

Henry's Herd Boar
Col. Pickett, a son of The Pickett, the $60,000 marvel and a grandson of Orange Boy, started in the show business early winning first in the senior pig class at Morgan county Fair in 1921, and second in the senior yearling class at the same fair in 1922 and champion and grand champion at the Scott County and Morgan County Fairs this year. He is a very uniform breeder and has been a great herd builder one of his sons went to work in a herd for a banker in Oklahoma last year.

Stonewall, another herd boar is a son of The Cornerstone, that was junior champion of the Peoria Swine Show, the best hog show in the world, in 1921, also senior and grand champion at the State Fair in 1922. Stonewall is a grandson of The Rainbow, and was first in the junior yearling class at the Scott County Fair this year, and second in the same class at the Morgan County Fair in a class of seven. He will be heard from later.

Peter Mainstay, another herd boar is by The Mainstay, the boar that won first in the senior yearling class at the State Fair last year and first in the aged class this year. Peter Mainstay's dam is by Peter The Second, the champion and grand champion at the State Fair in 1921.

Mr. Henry has another herd boar that is a wonder in his class, named Peter Buddy, by Peter the Second. The State Fair champion and grand champion in 1921 and is a second half cousin to the above mentioned Peter Mainstay, but Peter Buddy is of the greatest type, being 81 inches long and 42 inches high, weighing 640 pounds in just good condition and only a year old last March, he will help develop any herd.

Mr. Henry claims to have as many different blood lines as any breeder in the business and will sell a wonderful lot of young boars and gilts, including a few young sows in this sale, and invites his friends and neighbors to attend his sale, whether you want to buy or not. He takes pleasure in showing his herd.

BLUFFS

Bluffs, Sept. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hildebrand of Jacksville were Jacksonville visitors Thursday stopping over to visit their son William and family.

Mrs. J. C. Lewis and granddaughter Miss Dorothy returned Saturday from a week's visit in Chicago.

The Whist club entertained on Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. H.
Logan at the home of Mrs. H.
O'Brien. The time was passed in social conversation and cards attended which the committee in charge served a delicious luncheon.

Dr. A. B. Applebee of Jacksonville who has been confined to his home for the past three weeks on account of illness will again make his weekly visits to Bluffs on Mondays only, instead of Mondays and Fridays as in the past.

Rev. E. T. Palmer, wife and mother Mrs. Margaret Palmer left today for their new home in Astoria. The Palmers have been here for the past four years and have done a great work for the church while here and are leaving many warm friends who regret to lose them. During the pastorate of Rev. E. D. and E. T.
Palmer the church has been redecorated and the interior put in splendid shape. The exterior of the church and parsonage has been painted and the indebtedness of $1,000 on the parsonage has been paid off. They have been enthusiastic workers for the welfare of the church and many new members have been added to the church during their pastorate.

The Medames Palmer have taken their share of the work and by their splendid and ever-ready cooperation have helped to make the work of the past four years a success.

SPECULATORS HIT ON MOTOR STOCKS

FINANCIAL.
Total stock sales 337,000
shares.
Twenty industrials averaged
$7.88; net loss .09.
High 1923: 105.38; low
86.92.
Twenty railroads averaged
$1.06; net loss .12.
High 1923: 90.51; low 79.53
Total bond sales (par value)
$3,642,000.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Price movements in today's stock market were generally inconclusive, the average for both rails and industrials showing slight net losses on the day. Speculators launched another attack on the market, concentrating on the motor and accessories issues and a few specialties but they encountered fair resistance and a recovery was under way at the close.

Studebaker was hammered down to 94 1/2, a new low record for the year, but it snapped back later to 95 1/2, last night's close.
American Woolen touched a new bottom at 72 1/2 but bounced back to 74 for a net gain of nearly one point on extensive short covering.
Kellie Springfield established a new low at 23 1/2, and then rallied to 24 1/2, off 1 1/2.

Independent steel stocks were again offered rather freely on reports of a continued decline in mill operations, Gulf States Steel breaking two points but recovering part of its loss later. United States Steel closed unchanged at 84 1/2, after having sold nearly half a point below that figure. Northwestern railroad issues continued to lose ground in speculative expectation that their earnings will be materially impaired if the proposed reduction in freight rates on grain is made effective.

The weekly clearing house statement showed increases of $38,557,000 in loans, discounts, and investments, and $47,753,000 in net demand deposits. Cash in treasury vaults was $1,302,000 more than a week ago, but time deposits dropped $5,834,000. Aggregate reserve totalled $519,333,000, leaving excess reserve of $23,150-560, an increase of $29,505,420 above the week before.

Active United States government bonds continued to slide downward in today's brief session of the bond market; the tax exempt 3 1/2 and third liberty 4 1/2s each touching new lows for the year. The weakness of the government issues resulted not so much from selling pressure as from absence of buyers except at concessions. Dealers were unable to say when the government was expected to resume buying of these securities.

JOHN MORLEY (A characted Study) (By W. D. Wood)

The death of John Morley a few days ago in his eighty-fifth year has taken from the world the foremost man of letters of Anglo-saxondom and the most eminent exponent of British political liberalism. Born at Blackburn, in Lancashire, in the last week of December, 1838, he was the son of a physician and surgeon whose practice was chiefly among the handloom weavers of the small factory town that was his home. The father was born a Wesleyan but later became a member of the Church of England, though it is recorded that he was negligent of its ordinances, and critical of the clergy; and the divine to whom he was most devoted was Channing. He chose for his son a school kept by an instructor "of much local renown for accurate teaching and severe exactitude in general habits."

The grateful pupil, writing in his later years, has said: "This school had a strong hold on me, for it abounded in the unadulterated milk of the Independent word, and perhaps accounted for nonconformist affections in days to come. Encouraged by his son's progress and promise, the father at the cost of personal sacrifice sent him to Cheltenham College and from there he got a scholarship at Lincoln College, Oxford. For part of the years at Oxford he was lodged in the rooms once occupied by John Wesley, "sometimes summing how it was that all the thoughts and habits of my youthful Methodism were so rapidly vanishing."

It had been intended that when he was of due age young Morley should go into orders, but associations and influences at Oxford had left no firm foundation on which to build a clerical career. A slight experience with a youthful pupil convinced him that for teaching he had no liking and little aptitude. In later days he said it was his longinduring regret that he had not made his way to the bar, "with its immense opportunities, its honorable prizes, the fine gymnastic in combined common sense, accurate expression and strong thought." He did, indeed, read law and was called to the bar, but never engaged in general practice. But if the church, the school and the bar seemed closed to him, the door of journalism remained open; of this he has said: "The young graduate, born with a political frame of mind, who towards 1860 found himself transported from Oxford in pursuit of a literary calling, had little choice but journalism." If it was the day of small things it was also for the young aspirant a day of great choices, and the decision then made was consistently adhered to until the day of his death. Through the years after he had won and worn the highest rewards and honors of literature and of politics, he was always the capable, conscientious journalist.

The years when literature in one form or another claimed and received, his chief interest and attention were a period rich in labors and results. Besides his fifteen year editorship of the Fortnightly Review and the supervision of the English Men of letters, he wrote and published a number of books of permanent interest and value that made secure for all time a high place in the attraction of the English-speaking world. Such titles as "Burke," "Voltaire," "Miscellaneous," "On Compromise," "Diderot and the Euely Capitalists," and "Life of Richard Cobden," to speak the author's wide range of interest and the high quality of his work.

During this early period certain friendships were formed that are revealing in many ways, and were destined to be long-lived and of great potency. Attachments to George Meredith, John Stuart Mill and Joseph Chamberlain continued unbroken thru the lifetime of each. Chamberlain was the most prominent exponent of the more advanced radicalism of the day, and in advertising to the new alliance Morley says: "Chamberlain did all he could to press me into action and to play a part in the congregation of the faithful. I became at home upon the platform. Our fellowship lent me political credit, and our union began to count for something new in the Liberal hope and anticipation of the day." Under the circumstances Morley's election to parliament in 1883 was a not unnatural outcome. He had been a candidate in 1869 and again in 1880, but with no prospect of success in either instance. No chapter is more interesting than that reciting the transition from literature to politics, from journalism to parliament, but limited space enjoins the use of only a single sentence touching the matter: "Of all the thousand felicities of youth what can surpass the elation of a literary apprentice, free from tyrannous ambition and conscious of disinterested public spirit, yet alive to the uses and adaptabilities of life, one day finding a gate open for him in the great parliament-ary turnpike road." In the forty years that followed the opening of that gate of opportunity none of his fellow-travelers along the parliamentary highway surpassed him in living up to the highest uses and adaptabilities of life. In 1886 occurred a great crisis in the fortunes of the Liberal party of Great Britain, and at the same time an epoch-making event in English political history. The immediate cause was Gladstone's adherence to a policy of home rule for Ireland, followed by a rule to make the policy effective. Of all the great quadrilateral leaders, each representing a different phase or element of liberalism, Gladstone alone was equal to following the leadings of his own logic as to Ireland. They were all in substantial agreement in diagnosis but they disagreed as to therapeutics. Harrington, Wright and Chamberlain parted company with their chief and the breach then made in the party has never been healed. As leader of his party, Gladstone was charged with a responsibility from which his associates were free, and almost necessarily he had to go forward—to stand still was not possible, and retreat meant party defeat. In the realignment caused by party changes, advanced Liberals like John Morley and James Bryce were given recognition and promotion. In the cabinet of 1886, Morley, with but three years of parliamentary experience, was made secretary of state for Ireland. Telling of the interviews he says: "I noted down seven separate strong reasons against my fitness for the Irish office, and then went across to see Mr. Gladstone. I steadily recited my seven objections. He swept them aside wholesale, made me a cordial speech about confidence in my loyalty, and evidently means me for a special ally. It must be the critical post. I knew too well the responsibility of the step I had taken, to have room for a spark of elation." That he sensed the doubts and dangers of the post is apparent from his comments on the conditions he faced in Ireland, saying: "Religion and race, the two incendiary forces of history, shot jets of flame from their undying embers."
